Assessment Tools

Training Administrators of
Graduate Medical Education

Work Effort Tool (WET)

- Sent via email
- Assesses applied knowledge
- 2 month window for completion
- Completed WET returned via email
- Successful completion is 80% or better
 - Scored by 3 Specialty Board Members and 1 Outside Reviewer (from another specialty)

Professional presentation of WET is important part of the review.

Training Administrators of
Graduate Medical Education

WET Knowledge Content areas

- Duty Hours
- Competencies
- Website Navigation
- Annual Surveys
- Governing Bodies
- Recruitment and Recruitment Tools
- Next Accreditation System (NAS)
- Evaluations
- Procedures/Logs
- Academic Curriculum
- ACGME Policies and Procedures
- ECFMG, if applicable
- Site Visit

Training Administrators of
Graduate Medical Education

WET example:

Although difficult to find in the ACGME program requirements, A Sense of Humor is often considered to be the most important (and often over-looked) of all competencies that fellows should possess upon completion of their 3-year training.

- a. Explain how your program integrates A Sense of Humor into your cardiovascular disease fellowship.
- b. Describe the methods used to assess and document the Sense of Humor competency.
- c. Provide the citation that supports your answer.

Training Administrators of
Graduate Medical Education

Monitored Assessment Tool (MAT)

- Timed, monitored assessment (currently 3.5 hours)
- Matching and Multiple Choice
- Citations are required in designated sections
 - Tests ability to answer using resources rather than instant recall
- Resource documents allowed (open book)
- Successful completion is 80% overall
 - Scored by 3 Specialty Board Members and 1 Outside Reviewer (from another specialty)

Numerous open/closed options for MAT locations

Training Administrators of
Graduate Medical Education

MAT Knowledge Content Areas

- ACGME Global Requirements
 - 60 questions
 - Common Program and Institutional Requirements
- ACGME Clinical Specialty Program Requirements
 - 90 Questions
 - Current Specialty Program Requirements
 - Competencies
 - Definition of Terms from ACGME Glossary

Training Administrators of
Graduate Medical Education

MAT example:

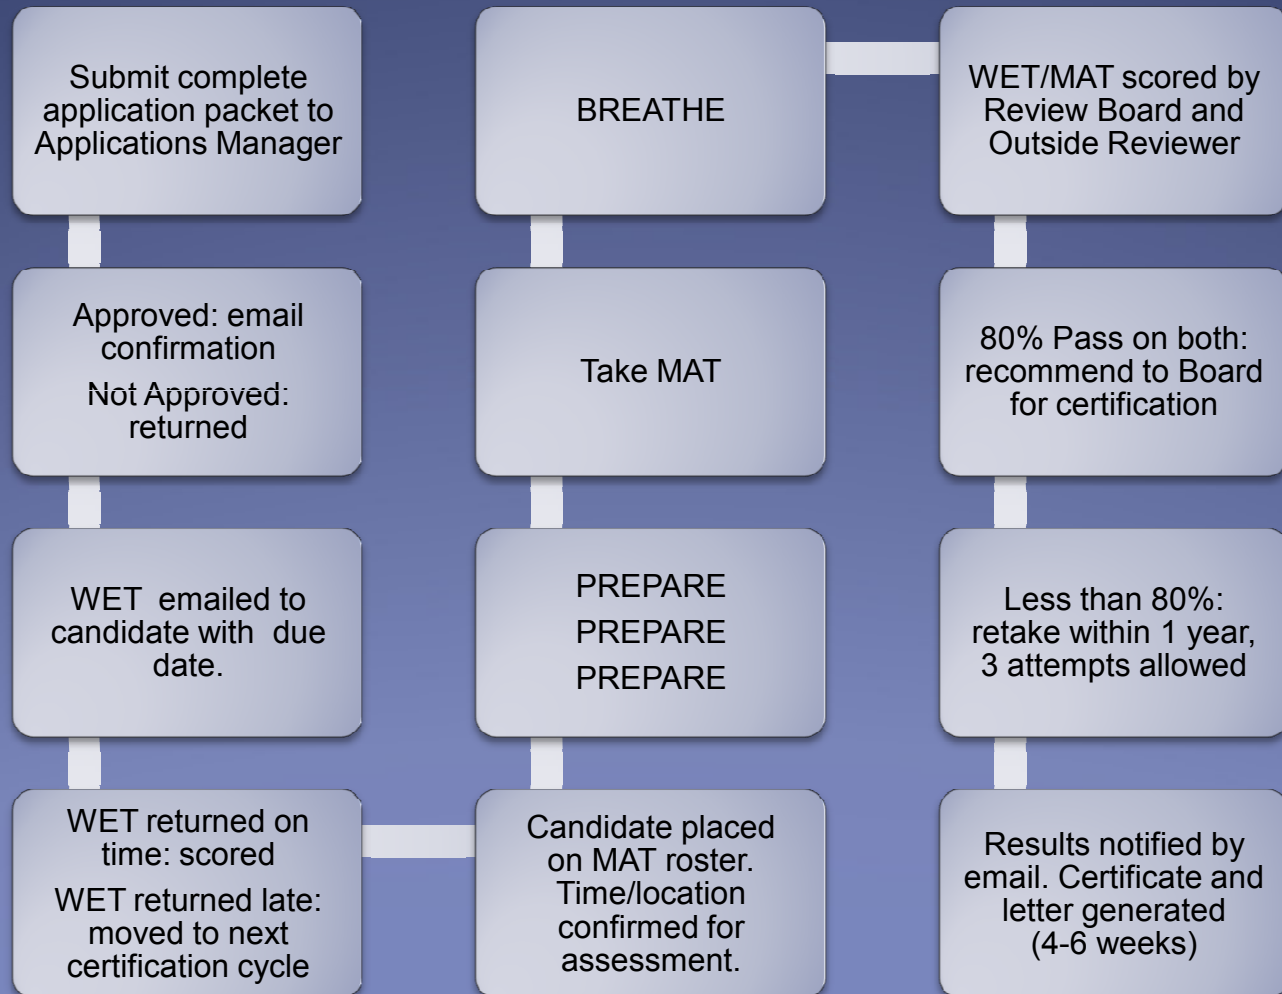

To comply with requirements regarding ACGME-endorsed strategic napping, programs must

- a) Provide noise-cancelling headphones in all call rooms
- b) Instruct the ED to not page the on-call fellows between the hours of 0200 and 0430
- c) Report napping time within weekly duty hours total
- d) Instruct fellows where to download to Meryl Streep's reading of Goodnight Moon.
