The ACC Medical Student Member Community (ACC-MSMC) has a student-led perspective piece section that serves as a forum for promoting the writing of ACC medical student members. This initiative serves as a publication vehicle for medical students. ACC-MSMC: Perspective Pieces will accept submissions that are well-composed and present clear learning objectives. The articles should focus on topics from the perspective of the medical student, including topics listed below:

- Advocacy
- Advice for students
- Career goals
- Diversity & inclusion
- Entrepreneurship
- Mentorship
- Opinion
- Personal views and experiences
- Patient encounters
- Research experiences
- Well-being & burnout

Perspective pieces that are focused on a topic not listed above should be emailed to the editorial committee to determine if the topic will be considered for publication.

I. Deadlines
   Submissions will be reviewed on a rolling basis with a notification issued as soon as the editorial committee can be convened every month.

II. Formatting
    Submissions must be prepared using Microsoft Word using the following format requirements:
    - Calibri font size 12
    - Half-inch margins
    - Single-spaced
    - Saved as file name: Last name_First name_MSMC_Perspective Piece ID#_Date of Submission

III. Content Order
    The order in which these items appear should also be the order in which they appear in your submission. Please review the template for assistance.

    - Title Page (required)
    - Text (required): No more than 800 words
    - References (if relevant)
    - Images/Figures: (optional but highly encouraged): No more than 3.

Required Components:

ACC Medical Student Member Community: Perspective Pieces — AUTHOR INSTRUCTIONS

- Topic (choose one from the list above)
- Author’s class year and institution
- Author contact information: Provide telephone, an e-mail address, and a Twitter handle, if available.
- Acknowledgements (optional): 100 words or less.
- Twittorial (optional): Provide a short tweet summarizing your paper to your title page. The tweet should be approximately 150 characters, including spaces. Please note that the editors will review your content, and it may not ultimately be published by our social media committee members’ Twitter account.

Text
No more than 800 words. Every reference and figure should be cited using AMA style in the text in numerical order according to order of mention.

Optional Component:
Figures
All figures must have a caption. All abbreviations used in the figure should be identified either after their first mention in the legend or in alphabetical order at the end of each legend. All symbols used (arrows, circles, etc.) must be explained. Figures should be cited in numerical order in the text.
- Figure titles should be short.
- If the figure has been previously published, cite the figure source in the legend.

Permissions
If an image/figure is reprinted or adapted from a previously published work, permission must be obtained from the copyright holder and sent to the editorial committee.

IV. Editorial Policies
By submitting an article to ACC-MSMC: Perspective Pieces, the author agrees to receive emails from the editorial committee regarding submission.

Authorship
The work must have been created by a single author who must be a registered member of the American College of Cardiology.

Patient Confidentiality
Please anonymize the patient's details and maintain compliance with HIPAA. Therefore, identifying information, including patients' images, names, initials, or hospital numbers, should not be included in videos, written descriptions, and photographs. The ACC-MSMC: Perspective Pieces editorial committee, which oversees quality control will review issues of concern, as they arise.

Review Process
Each paper will be evaluated by at least two members of the ACC-MSMC: Perspective Pieces editorial committee before one of the four publication decisions below is made.
- Accept. The perspective piece is acceptable for publication in its current form. However, minor edits may be made by the ACC-MSMC: Perspective Pieces editorial committee, ACC Marketing, or the publisher, and authors will need to work to ensure these changes are made post-acceptance.
- Minor Revision. It is important to note that this decision does not guarantee acceptance. However, less significant edits are required than a Major Revision Required decision.
- Major Revision. The perspective piece is unacceptable for publication in its current form. However, the editors are willing to reconsider a thoroughly revised perspective piece. The authors must respond to all editor comments and the submission will be re-reviewed and treated as a new submission.
