D. Abstract (Important Issues)

1. Click here to submit your abstract.
2. Abstracts MUST conform to specific size limits or they will remain in an incomplete status and will not be reviewed. Your abstract may not contain more than 1,900 characters, not including spaces. Each graphic or table equals 600 characters and is included as part of the 1,900 character limit. (This means that if you attach 3 tables or graphs, these would count as 1,800 characters and you would only be allowed to submit 100 characters for the Abstract Body.)
3. Deadline for submission: 11:59 pm EST, December 4, 2020.

Abstract Body/Text

1. You may use five unique abbreviations in the body of the abstract. Spell out the complete phrase followed by the abbreviation in parentheses the first time the abbreviation is used. Abbreviations are not allowed in the title of the abstract.
2. Do not include the title in the abstract body.
3. Do not include authors and institutions in the abstract body. Any author or institution names included in the body will be removed.
4. The abstract must be presented in the following sequence, using the headings listed:
Background: In an initial paragraph, provide relevant information regarding the background and purpose of the study, preferably in no more than one or two sentences.

Methods: Briefly state the methods used.

Results: Summarize the results in sufficient detail to support the conclusions.

Conclusions: State the conclusions reached. It is not satisfactory to state “the results will be discussed.”

5. Please proofread carefully for factual, spelling, and size errors. If published, the abstract will appear exactly as the online system confirmation shows.

Clinical Implications

1. In one sentence, state the main clinical implications (or significance) of your study.

Tables

1. Each table or graphic equals 600 characters and is included as part of the 1,900 character limit. (This means that if you attach 3 tables or graphics, these would count as 1,800 characters and you would only be allowed to submit 100 characters for the Abstract Body.)
2. Tables should have a file type of “gif”, “jpg”, or “jpeg”. Even though the abstract system may allow you to upload a table with a different file type those tables will not be reviewed or reproduced if the abstract is selected.
3. Please upload a table(s) as a separate attachment if you wish to include it with your abstract.

Graphics

1. Each table or graphic equals 600 characters and is included as part of the 1,900 character limit. (This means that if you attach 3 tables or graphics, these would count as 1,800 characters and you would only be allowed to submit 100 characters for the Abstract Body.)
2. Graphics should be high resolution and have a file type of “gif”, “jpg”, or “jpeg”. Even though the abstract system may allow you to upload a graphic with a different file type those graphics will not be reviewed or reproduced if the abstract is selected.
3. Please upload a graphic(s) as a separate attachment if you wish to include it with your abstract.
4. Please keep in mind that large and or complex graphics may not be readable in print or electronic formats.

Disposition/Notification of Acceptance

You will be sent a notification with the status of your submission via email by December 20, 2020. If your abstract is accepted, you will be directed to provide financial disclosure information and to register for the course.

Withdrawals

To withdraw an abstract, email Jackie Massey at jmassey@acc.org and provide the title of the abstract, as well as the submitting author's name. Your notification of withdrawal must be received by January 7, 2021.
