The American College of Cardiology is proud to host ACC Latin America 2021 Virtual on 5 and 6 November 2021. This is the first time the ACC Latin America Conference will be broadcast live to the entire region and will be offered in English, Spanish, and Portuguese.

This two-day innovative virtual education initiative brings together the best science in cardiac care led by internationally renowned faculty from the United States, Spanish speaking Latin America, and Brazil to attract delegates from the region and beyond. Be it knowledge sharing, updating skills, or networking opportunities, this conference has something for everyone.

- Special Journal of the American College of Cardiology (JACC) session featuring JACC editor-in-chief Valentin Fuster, MD, PhD, MACC.
- FIT Jeopardy game competition where regional fellows in training will test their clinical knowledge on a variety of topics
- Sessions highlighting the latest in cardiovascular prevention and care including Top Clinical Trials and sessions offering practical solutions to guideline driven care
- Scientific abstracts and challenging clinical cases with international awards
- Direct broadcast to facilities under the “Learning Together” institutional sponsorship package offering

The ACC values the unceasing support from industry over the years and we hope to continue our partnership in 2021. Multiple opportunities exist to support the conference through sponsorship packages and exhibitor presence.

We consider supporters like you to be vital to the success of this exciting event. Your participation as a leading innovator in the field of cardiology will complement the unique format and allow you to make impactful connections and network with the current and future leaders of cardiology in the region. In addition, you will be able to provide our attendees the opportunity to gather useful information about your products and services.

We look forward to partnering with you and working together towards a successful conference for all!
